

K&K IRON WORKS

Structural Steel and Misc. Metals Estimator

Job Summary

The Estimator quotes structural steel, miscellaneous steel, engineering, erection and installation processes and services. Through hands-on experience envisions difficult installation and fabrication scenarios and knows not everything quoted can be determined by a formula.

Principle Duties and Responsibilities

- Responsible for accurate material quantity take-off
- Quantifies number of shop and detailing hours to fabricate structural steel and miscellaneous metals.
- Determines installation schemes to establish crew sizes and duration.
- Evaluates all contract documents including all bid drawings, specifications, general conditions and if necessary the project site.
- Determines scope of work for our trade and determines vague areas to qualify bids.
- Develops comprehensive, detailed proposal for the project estimated
- Posts bid negotiations with client and K&K Sales staff to determine final scopes of work and assigns values to items that may be revised or deleted.
- Posts bid “value engineering” to help negotiate final contract with K&K Sales staff and client.
- Assists Project Management staff with pricing issues on major project revisions.

Preferred Experience and Skills

- Minimum of 5 years estimating experience in structural steel and miscellaneous metals fabrication and erection, other construction estimating may apply, to be determined
- College Degree or Equivalent Experience Preferred
- Experience with miscellaneous metals preferred.
- Project Management experience preferred.
- Good language skills, both written and oral.
- Working knowledge of MS Word and Excel.
- Working Knowledge of Fabtrol Software preferred, but not required.

Benefits

This is a full time permanent position with 401k, Health, Dental and Life Insurance offered, paid vacations and competitive salaries.

Disclaimer

This job description is not all inclusive and may include other duties as assigned.